

I have been using the XM radio for almost 2 years now and I want to make my opinion count. This service is the best there is. FM stations really need to learn from them. There is no way I am going back to the terrestrial radio. The new features that XM radio is implementing really improve the life quality. Don't take it away from us!